Seek Japanese Canadian Of the Past Half Century

By Staff Writer

In a review of the historical past half-century, the names of Ghandi, Churchill, Roosevelt, Lenin, Einstein, were among the names mentioned as the greatest greats of the recently-ended fifty year era. And various publications have different ideas as to whom should go the honor of being the Man of the Half-Century.

Not to be outdone, The New Canadian is also looking for its M of the HC. The Japanese Section is requesting the readers to submit a name or names (not more than five) of persons of Japanese ancestry, living or dead, who at one time or another during the half-century resided in Canada who can be considered to be most outstanding.

They are also asked to give reasons for their choices.

Results will be made known sometimes in the latter part of February as to whom will go the honor of entering a Japanese Canadian version of the "hall of fame".

There are no restrictions as to the reason why they select a certain individual; it could be a person who has been personally successful, or who has made the most or outstanding contribution to the advancement of the Japanese Canadian welfare, or for any other reason the reader may care to choose.

Since the history of the Japanese in Canada is about fifty years old, and that we have just completed a year in which much of our aspirations have been fulfilled, making a selection is timely and auspicious.

The English Section is not participating because the period in which the Nisei had come to the fore has been relatively short and are not in a position, we feel, to judge the outstanding accomplishments of a 50-year period.

Perhaps, in the year 2000 A.D., we'll have some nominations for the Nisei of the Half-Century.

Just Passing Through

By KEN ADACHI

On One Side . . .

Back in the year 1929, the largest number of Niseis were reportedly born and in the years following, behind the grim backdrop of the depression, more saw the light of day. These would be the older teenagers, the late youth of today.

The Niseis born before that time are probably settled in their grooves and may be raising children who are classified as the Sansei. These Nisei have grown into maturity and are steady, stolid citizens.

But what about these young Nisei? There are no cold statistics or facts on which to base any report, only conjecture on their status, economical, social or otherwise.

If one wanted to analyze them, it would be best to look at the typical Nisei. But again, is there such a thing as the "typical Nisei"? The life and loves of the Nisei does not seem to fall into one set pattern.

Most of these Nisei are of high school age but it is doubtful whether many of them have finished their learning. To be on the conservative side, probably more than half have left school in the earlier years of high school. True, the war and the ensuing evacuation deterred many from continuing school but despite that fact, there are others who drop out of school after a few years of school to seek employment, either prodded by the finger of economic need or prompted by a sense of boredom or frustration.

Taking Toronto Nisei as an example, there seems to be a surprisingly small proportion attending high school and there are many who have tak n only a few years of school. erhaps this situation stems from the fact that things were too unsettled when their families first came into the East after the evacuation.

Whatever the reason, the fact remains that these Nisei didn't get the education and training that school may have brought them. They stepped out into different jobs and some of the luckier ones found positions suited to their capabilities. Others are in semi-skilled trades but you don't need much practice to fill a gas tank, fry hamburgers, or likewise. So one can say that the Nisei are in a rut.

Socially, the Nisei seems to mix well with other racial groups but within themselves, most of them tend to keep in rather cliquish groups.

Here's a curious trait. A Nisei is walking along the street. If

Writes About Life In Japanese Army

TOKYO. — The experiences of a Hawaiian Nisei in the Japanese army in China will be told in a book soon to be published in the United States.

The book, "Long the Imperial Way," was written by Hanama Tasaki, a native of Hawaii who was drafted into the Japanese army when he went to Japan. He saw service from 1938 to 1941 when he was discharged. He is now an operator of a hog farm near Yokohama.

The book was brought to the attention of an American publishing house by a Professor Carl Shoup who visited Japan on a special mission for the occupation. He saw the book in a limited edition in Tokyo.

The publisher wrote Tasaki that "anyone who can write that book is a writer and is going to keep at it." The title of the book will be changed in the American edition.

700 Horses Learn Japanese Language

TOKYO. — The U. S. Army is teaching seven hundred horses a foreign language.

These horses sent to Okinawa from the United States are successfully learning to understand the Japanese language. The American horses are catching on fast enough to be able already to obey commands given them by Japanese farmers.

Loses Equipment In $40,000 Blaze

GRAND FORKS, B. C. — Harry's Photo and Confectionery in the Yale Hotel Block suffered severe damage as a result of the $40,000 fire which swept through the Yale Hotel premises in Grand Forks, on the early morning of Jan. 5.

Hideo Harry Miyamoto, who operated the store, had moved a year previously to the present site from the Roxy Theatre building, and had gained a steady and popular trade. He came to Grand Forks about two years ago from New Denver, B. C.

With the help of volunteers and firemen, most of the stock was removed to shelter, but much photographic equipment was lost in the blaze.

Davey's Beauty Service, located in the same building, and the Yale Cafe in the new addition, also had their premises destroyed. It will be some time before the hotel will be rebuilt.

J. Fujiwara, auditors; H. Tanabe, T. Uyeyama and K. Tamura, advisers; Kay Iwasaki, Tosh Ono, Mits Kato, Sadie Adachi and George Koyanagi, social committee.

WELCOMING THE STRANDEES

There has been an urgent need for some Nisei organizations to take an active interest in those Niseis who were in Japan during the war and who only recently have been able to return to Canada. Especially those who went to Japan at an early age have been experiencing difficulties in readjusting themselves after their prolonged absence from the land of their birth. Language handicaps and lack of friends, have, in many instances, given them a lost feeling in the company of other Niseis, and it is understandable that they are finding it extremely difficult to feel that they are back at home.

In initiating among its activities one which calls for assisting these Niseis, the Toronto JCCA is taking a commendable forward step. It is one which is fully appreciated by these returnees in the Toronto area for not only does it give them an opportunity to mix socially with other Niseis, this affords them their first chance to gather together themselves.

It is hoped that this will be followed by organizations in other centres where there is a sizeable number of these returnees to make them a welcome addition to their community.

Nisei With Chinese Name Sings Irish Ballads

LOS ANGELES. — Not too long ago television viewers heard and saw an Oriental by the name of Dick Wong sing on Spade Cooley's popular TV show. His real name is Riki Matsufuji of Sacramento.

Dick acquired most of his stage personality and microphone technique while directing, arranging and singing for a Nisei orchestra in a relocation camp, where he also learned to play a hot bass fiddle.

But his love for music and the entertainment field did not grow within him just during the war years. While attending high school in the Capitol City, he managed to take singing lessons in between the good-natured ribbing of his friends and playing fullback for a Nisei football team.

His soft but rich tenor voice and his [illegible] handling of the songs got him his first professional job in St. Paul, Minn.

From there, his agents booked him [illegible] circuits and [illegible] appearances throughout the middle west and Canada, including the [illegible] Hotel in New Orleans, and the Oriental Theatre in Chicago with such outstanding music-makers as Stan Kenton and Jack Teagarden.

Like [illegible] other Nisei, Dick soon longed to return to the coast and finally [illegible] bookings made for him in California.

He now resides in Los Angeles and is scheduled to make appearances at the local Orpheum Theatre and the Golden Gate Theatre in San Francisco plus television shows in both cities.

Queried as to his liking for his life as an entertainer, Dick says "It's got its measure of laughs and tears . . . but I've gotten so that I just can't stay in any one city for long."

So, for a long time to come, a Nisei with a Chinese stage name singing Irish songs will continue to please vaudeville lovers throughout the country.

Your Legal Problems

Question: My husband and I are joint tenants. What does this mean?

Answer: Joint tenancy is a legal concept where if the two parties each hold the entire estate together, and if one dies, the other receives the entire estate. Neither of you can, therefore, leave your property in a will because in the event of death of either of you, it will go to the survivor.

Landlord and Tenant Law has been complicated by wartime regulations. Many questions are asked about this section of the law.

THE WEEKLY HABIT

By TOYO TAKATA

Two seemingly unrelated topics, both of nationwide scope, come to mind, weather and unemployment. However, there is some kinship between these thoughts in that unemployment fluctuates with the season and it is always highest during the winter months.

We do not attest to being economists keyed with the analytical sense of interpreting current conditions and trends nor can we connote meteorological temperaments, however, we will pass off our dilletante views on the subject matters.

Dabbing at the weather first, if there were a Bob Hope or a Fred Allen in Canada, the turnabout act that climatic conditions have performed this winter would be an inspiration for many a gag. Somehow, Mother Nature got her wires crossed and the West coast was blanketed while the East got a drenching.

The British Columbia coast, synonymous with mild winters and golf at Christmas, got a dose of what the east has been suffering long before Jacques Cartier pitched his tent on the banks of the St. Lawrence, as she experienced the novelty of being mantled with white precipitation measured in feet. She must have been badly doublecrossed as trains from Vancouver arrived at the time of this writing, nearly a day late.

And she has already had a bad time of it early in the winter when she was struck by a severe windstorm which created extensive damage.

On the other hand, eastern Canada is experiencing the wet winters generally attributable to the Pacific Coast, with the mercury bobbing in the 50's. Then, over the weekend, southern Ontario was lashed by gales which reminded us of the winds of hurricane velocity which we remember as the signs of early spring on the west coast. And, in addition, we were enshrouded in fog at the dawn of 1950.

The other matter is more perturbing. While there are those who avow that we are at the brink of another recession, and others pooh, pooh this flatly with a contradiction that 1950's volume of business will match that of 1949, one point is positive, and that is, there is more unemployment this winter than in any other similar periods in recent years.

While we don't wish to be classified as alarmists, it is a subject of concern. There is no denying that the boom is over and that there has been much evidence of tightening up as we have returned to a so-called "normal" period.

Whenever the topic of unemployment or depression is discussed, everyone thinks in the terms of the hungry thirties, and small wonder, therefore, that such talk raises a few wrinkles. For soup kitchens, relief work projects and brother, can you spare a dime, is no dreamer's holiday.

Most of us were too young to remember very much of those times, but the elder Nisei can recollect what transpired then. And it wasn't until the outbreak of the war that all the symptoms disappeared.

A point that strikes a discord is that some have already turned around for a goat on whom to vent the blame for the situation, and they have selected the D.P's. That smacks of the Nazis tirading the cause of the woes of their fatherland on the Jews. And it also reminds us that elements of returning soldiers from World War 1 in British Columbia demanded that they be given the jobs then held by the Orientals.

We cannot see how these immigrants from a wartorn continent could hardly be blamed for the present condition. Moreover, this singling out of groups is not only futile, it is dangerous. We ought to know.

And there is even talk that Canada should close her doors to further immigration. Much of Canada still remains undeveloped and if her untouched resources are to be tapped, we need a larger population. This country can still absorb many more new immigrants.

But getting back to the employment picture, we have some assurance that if there are any signs of setbacks, the government is ready with a backlog of projects and that the thirties have taught them a lesson on being prepared.

We hope so.

PASSING THRU

he sees another Nisei, a stranger, he will pass him with a cold impersonal glance. If he meets another Nisei in a show, a streetcar, or any public place, he will tend to shy away, to avoid the other. Yet at a dance, he is generally sociable to friends and strangers alike.

And what about the Nisei-Issei relationship? Now here is a ticklish problem, one which can be applied only to the individual. Take the average Nisei and his Japanese heritage. Does he speak the Japanese language, is he versed with the customs, the culture, the manners, the idiosyncrasies of the Issei? The answer when applied to the young Nisei is—no. In some, there is a defiance, a tendency to draw away from anything Japanese. To them, the Issei is inordinately stiffnecked, prim, hard to get along with because of conflicting ideas. Whether this attitude is correct or otherwise is another matter for conjecture.

The Issei is the hard-rock pioneer who toiled to build a home for the Nisei. But there is another generation—the Sansei—coming and their's will be a different era—one that may be void of Isseisms.

But the young Nisei will reach the age of maturity painlessly, calmly, and gradually, and perhaps that's the best way.

カネは涙か溜息か

（四） 東京 露木海藏

そこでカナダの諸君が日本を訪問するとして、横濱へ着いてそのまゝ田舎へ引込み何んにも支出せず再び渡航するとしても先づ三万圓位はいるだろう。若し一週間の旅行（東京に二日、温泉二日、京都、奈良、大阪位）をやるとすれば一日平均して三千圓、計二万圓かかるものと思わなければならない。一寸ウッカリしていると四万圓はかかる覺悟をしなければならぬ。そうなるともう斷をきいただけで腰が抜けそうであるが、こゝにも然しがあつて、上手にプランを組めば船賃は別に日本金四万圓位で二ヶ月の訪問は出來よう。それには條件として日本の親兄弟の所で暮す日數を十分にする事だ。田舎に入つたら一ヶ月約二万圓位の金で結構ノラ／＼出來る。あとの二万圓で十日位の旅行をするのだ。日本に來てアメリカ歸りの態度で暮したら、金はいくらあつても足りない。要は伜しようである。

では結局は「君はどうして暮しているか」と僕に質問すると思う。さよう、僕は半農だ。家族のものが少しやる農業で主食はある。家もある。だから家のやりくりはあと一万から一万三千圓位かな。僕のを入れて一ヶ月二万は收入を計らねばならぬ。そこで僕は招待に應じてこゝかしこ講演や映畫關係に飛び出してそれだけの收入を計らなければやつて行けない。幸い丈夫だし、どうにかやつて行く。もつと切りつめてやつて行けるとも思うが、そんなにムリをしたくない。毎月々々家のものに心配させないでどうにか暮しを笑つて過ごすには矢張り苦勞もいる。そのためだろうか頭も白いものが多くなつて年も又一つ重ねる事になつた。自分では若いつもりでも世間から見たら年頃な初老に入つている。

讀み通してみると此の記事も年の瀬の「斜陽」を傳えているようだ。年齢の工合か。思えば、どんなに苦しいといつても日本とカナダではケタちがい。カナダでは寒い日にストーブがあるだけでもまア結構な話じやありませんか。——（終り）

當り前の賠償を「要求」

トロントの要求者大會で意見決定

【トロント發】一月十五日午後開かれたトロントの賠償要求者大會には四十餘名の出席者があり高島氏が司會して先づユクレニアン協會幹事から彼等の會館その他の財産を戰時中に沒收され、それを取戻したケースについて詳細なる説明があり、次に梅月氏から全加市協で作つた損害賠償問題に關する全面的なブリーフの草案を説明、峰調氏からはトロントの要求者自身の委員會で考慮している點を

一、ブリーフは陳情というよりも、當り前に損害を辨償することを強く「要求」すべきである

二、政府への陳情やカナダ人一般に訴えるパブリツクキャンペーン等最後の運動に必要なる費用として五千弗程度必要だがこれは市協チャプターに依賴して要求者から醵出、賠償を受ける時に歩合で分擔して貰う）して貰うよう同意を求める

等のことを説明して討議に入り、強く「要求」することに意見がまとまり、全加市協の賠償問題特別委員會とトロントの要求者の委員會の市協との連絡委員との合同會議の議長に小畑ロージャー氏を推すことを市協に申込むことを決定した。會合では要求者側委員會の主張する強く「要求」するということが、バード・コミシヨナーの調査や進言等を一蹴することを意味するものであるか否かという點も指摘されたが、何れにしても大會の決定は要求者側の連絡委員から全加市協に提出されて市協で協議した上で、市協で用意しているカナダ全般の要求者に對する手紙（市協の案や最後的な運動方法など）と共に要求者に提示して、その意向をただすということになるであろう

對中共態度を決定
休會明けオタワ議會で

【オタワ發】休會明けオタワ議會に於てカナダ政府は中共政府承認問題に關して態度を決定するものと見られる。コロンボにおける英連邦外相會議で中共承認に就て重要懇談が行われたが、ピアソン外相の歸國と共にオタワ政府はコロンボ會議の報告をうけ、議會に「中共政府の存在を認める」という事實の承認に關して議すという事になろうと觀測される一方、十五日中共が北京駐在の米領事館を占領した如き不法不信行爲が更に繰返される場合、カナダの中共承認は延期される理由となるであろうと見られるが、いづれにしても本議會にはハッキリと對中共態度を明白にするものであろう

コロンボ會議閉幕

【コロンボ發】六日間に亘る英連邦外相會議は十五日速かなる結果は直ちに見られないとするも幾多の成果を收めて閉幕した。ピアソン外相は極東英連邦通商代表らと會談の上歸途空路東京に滯在、日加通商增進に關して懇談する豫定である

失業對策 公共工事を起せ
オンタリオ勞働年會で決議

【トロント發】ローヤールヨーク・ホテルで先週末行われたオンタリオ勞働連盟年會で代表者三六四が參集、增加しつつある失業者に職を與える方法として公共工事を起すべきであると決議すると共に、安いレントの住宅建築と老年恩給を六十才からとする提案に滿場賛意を表した。逐日失業者のふえる理由として同年會で論議された點は

(一)共產主義勢力下の諸國がカナダとの通商を三〇ないし四〇パーセント削減した事による

(二)歐洲難民(ディピー)のカナダ移入による就職口の減少

(三)雇主が賃銀低下をたくらみるための故意的なクビ切りによる失業者の增加

雜錄　梅月生

◇「平安時代、平家の專政に反逆した僧侶俊寛の山莊、又少し下っては日本佛教の宗教改革ののろしをあげた僧法然の弟子住蓮、安樂の草庵等の歷史的背景をもった鹿ケ谷」―京都市左京區鹿ケ谷の安樂寺住職池田曉という人から手紙を戴いた。「知人からニューカナディアン紙を入手してトロント佛教會の活躍を知り、いずれは日曜學校も開設していることゝ存じ、かねて在外寺院日校と作品、情報等文化活動の交換をせひやりたいと思っているので、連絡紹介の勞をとって頂きたく、日校生徒らも非常に希望しているし、これが平和日本建設の上に何らかの力になればと念願している」とあるので、さつそくトロント佛教會に此のことを通じておいた。池田住職の手紙は、日本の復興も物質面では先ず相當のところまで達したけれども精神の面ではこれに伴わず、利己意識は戰時中その後そのまゝであり、東洋の道德、美しいヒューマニズムを一日も早く取りもどしたいものと、私達は日曜學校を主体としたグループによって努力していると述べている。

◇「永年の宿望だったカナダ市民權證が下附されるのでネルソン市まで出かけて行ったが、さすがは文明國と益々感心した。判事が一同に向って宣誓させ、カナダ市民としての心がけを話し終ってからカナダの雄大な山林、漁業、農牧畜業などの映畫を見せてくれた。」―これはビーシー州の或人からであるが、彼の感動には反省と希望の二重の意味があることであろう

Season's High Of 31 Pts. Potted By H. Miyasaki, Three Short Of Record; Mustangs, Aces Register

Last Friday's highlight at the Church of All Nation's was the scoring spree set by Herbie Miyasaki, young lanky Mustangs forward, who netted a total of 31 points, the best scoring exhibition of the current season. However it fell three short of the league record established by his older brother Ken, who, back in the 47-48 season, came up with 34 points for a single night's work.

MUSTANGS 72—REBELS 39

Mustangs extended their streak to eight straight wins, thereby wrapping up first place by drubbing the Rebels 72-39. The first half saw a semblance of a basketball game as Mustangs were ahead by 27-17 at the end of the half.

But the second half was a rout as the Rebel's defense completely collapsed as Herby and Ken Miyasaki went on a spree throwing in 29 points between them. Roy Kurita played a steady game for the losers.

Mustangs: H. Miyasaki 31, K. Miyasaki 17, Inamoto 6, R. Miyasaki 5, Ohara 4, Makimoto 4, T. Toyama 3, J. Toyama 2, Mori.
Rebels: Kurita 10, Hirano 8, Mitsui 6, Fukumoto 6, Izukawa 4, Ioi 3, Akada 2.

ACES 44—WHIZZ KIDS 36

In the nightcap, Aces continued their domination of the Whizz Kids. At the whistle, the WK's jumped into a 7-0 advantage, but which was whittled down by the end of the opening quarter. Mainly through the efforts of hard-working Aki Hayashi, the score at the half was 20-16 for the Aces.

The second half was almost a replica of the first with both teams emphasizing speed. Soc Shintani broke through on several fast breaks to keep the Kids within striking distance of the eventual winners, who, led by Seiji Takata, increased their margin of victory.

Aces: Hayashi 13, S. Takata 10, Arai 8, Miyashita 8, G. Takata 3, Oda 2, Onishi.

Whizz Kids: Shintani 8, Fukumoto 6, Koyanagi 6, Kajioka 6, K. Maikawa 4, Maikawa 2, Fujiwara 2, Kameoka 2, Miyasaki.

OK Lengthens Lead In Toronto Bowling

OK Cleaners consolidated their first place margin in the Toronto Nisei Major Bowling League by blanking Takeda Insurance 7-0 on Jan. 13 to increase their lead to 7 pts. over second place Variety Grill who beat Urabe Insurance 5-2.

Sora Constructions, Danforth Cleaners and Team Nine beat Freedman's, Yamada's and Star Cleaners, respectively 5-2. Queen City beat Best Cleaners 4-3. OK Cleaners now have 85 pts., Variety 78 pts., Urabe and Yamada's 76 pts.

H. Inouye bowled the high triple of the night with 874 and also the high single with 355. Other high bowlers were T. Mori 805-295, M. Isojima 767-288, Y. Kishimoto 731-303, A. Fujibayashi 730-332, S. Amemori 708-265, and M. Matsumoto 719-258.

All Nations 'A' Team Lose Match, Drop Into Tie With St. Clements, 'B' Shuttlers Bow Out Of Race

The "A" squad of the All Nations in the Inter-Church Badminton League were toppled from the top of the league into a tie with St. Clements by losing to them 15-9 on Jan. 13. The "A's" were weakened by the absence of three regular ladies and although Misses Mits Shintani, Tosh Maeda and Yoshiko Nishimura filled the breach valiantly, they could not cope with their more experienced opponents.

Once more the fine play of Mr. and Mrs. McTaggart-Cowan, the English-trained shuttlists weighed heavily against the Niseis. Mrs. McTaggart-Cowan and Mrs. World won the ladies and the McTaggart-Cowans teamed to down the best mixed doubles team of Kay Ogaki and Johnny Tanaka. The only two matches the Niseis salvaged were two by Tanaka and Frank Matsui over McTaggart-Cowan and Martin. Chiz Fukusaka put up the best effort, teaming with Matt Matsui to score the only mixed double victory.

To remain in the running for the loop championship, the squad must win their remaining two matches against Christ Church on Jan. 15 and Trinity United on Jan. 25 and engage St. Clements in a home-and-home final.

Gloom around the JCCA Church of A. N. Club thickened as the "B" team bowed out of contention for the section championship, losing to St. Judes on Jan. 12. At the end of the regular 24-set league matches, the score was tied at 12 matches apiece and the victory for the night went to St. Judes after the number of points scored by each team was totalled up.

Feather Banter: According to Roy Shin, A. N. prexy, the club will hold the annual invitation match with combined London-Hamilton and Kitchener during the Easter weekend. Montreal shuttlers had better sharpen up as a select A. N. group will invade there shortly. Three mens' doubles teams made up from Metropolitan, St. FX and JCCA Trinity clubs will be playing a match with the Hamilton club on Jan. 27. Yosh Tonegai, Hamilton captain, is rapidly getting his players in shape for the first invitation match of the season. Roy Shin will lead his small group into the coming T & D tourney and although they will meet stiff opposition, they will gain much experience in meeting players from all over the city. Kay Ogaki was invited by Mrs. World to team up with her to play in the same tourney, showing that people are beginning to notice the Niseis.

ACCENTS ON SPORTS

Two summers ago, we were holidaying down in Cleveland and on Sunday afternoon (no, this isn't going to be about Sunday sports) we watched two Nisei teams playing softball. The umpire was an Occidental who seemed to be middle-aged and not spry enough to handle the game too properly. And he even got paid for it.

We asked why. If they had a Nisei to umpire the game, we were enlightened, there were too many beefs so they hired a hakujin.

That's one of the queer, often inexplicable traits we possess. No matter where we are or what game we play, if a non Japanese is refereeing the contest there is less likelihood of delays and arguments, and more adherence to the proper spirit of the game. And it is not just a case of more competent handling, though with an Occidental there is less chance of biased arbitrating.

When the ref is an Occidental, the players really watch infractions and obey his instructions meekly. But if one of their own kind is tooting the whistle, they question his unfavorable calls and get careless.

So it always ends up that with crucial games or when stakes are high, it's usually best to bring in an outside ref.

It must be that we have a complex, a sort of a dual personality in that we reserve one set of emotions and actions for our own kind of people and another for those of another race. We are too conscious of what we are and we tend to control our feelings behind a mask of submissive acceptance even when there is a ground for questioning a decision.

A good example of this is the comparison of the notorious behavior of Niseis at the pre-evacuation Japanese language school and at the same time they came home with A's for deportment and diligence from the regular school.

Winter sport enthusiasts have little to crow about in the East, their activities being frustrated by the lack of snow or ice because of the unusually mild winter. Across the line, University of Utah ski star Amy Toda, who formerly lived in Vancouver, performed in the women's section of the annual Snow cup races at Alberta, finishing eighth in a near-blizzard.

Badminton is in full swing with tourneys between Toronto, Hamilton, London, Kitchener, and Montreal being planned. Of the Toronto shuttlers in the Inter-Church League, it's been noted by the opponents that the defense put up by the Niseis is about the best and that the only improvement that can be made in their game is in the offense. It's the same case of good field, no hit as in Nisei baseball.

Pee-wee puck enthusiasts are turning out for practices under the watchful scrutiny of Prexy Matt Matsui of the Toronto Nisei Hockey League. Twenty-five of them turned out for the first practise and it seems that there's some good prospects in their ranks. With a little encouragement and development, these youthful Nisei puckster may turn out some surprises.

Japanese Casanova Marries 15 Times

TOKYO. — Fifteen marriages in 14 months is the gaudy record of handsome H. Moriguchi, 51.

His 15th marriage proved his downfall, however, as his disappearance with 2,000 yen belonging to his bride made her father report him to the police.

Moriguchi admitted his 15 marriages but asked for time in which to list his brides names because he could not remember them all. Police promised him plenty of time in jail to remember.

A NISEI PERSONALITY

Kim Nakashima

By V. O.

I can't recollect when I first met Kim Nakashima. I don't think that we were ever formally introduced to each other. But I do know that our acquaintanceship started around five years ago.

There is nothing physically impressive about Kim. He is like thousands of other Niseis—only more so. You can be friends with him for about a month and yet you would not single him out as being impressive or conspicuous in any way, for one of Kim's characteristics is his natural modesty—his unassuming attitude, his ability to possess authority but never intoxicated by it into conceit and egocentricity.

When I first met Kim, I felt no affinity towards him. I found him too conservative and contemplative for my taste. I found him too efficient, too much of an automaton, too void of the human frailties to attract my affection. I even hated his voice which seemed too ingratiating. Those were my thoughts of Kim four years ago.

An ignorant man talks as if he knew everything and that others know nothing; while the wise man speaks little, presuming that what he knows, others also know. In the "Laws", Plato says, "O my son, you are young, and the advance of time will make you reverse many of the opinions which you now hold. Wait awhile and do not attempt to judge at present."

But like the ignorant man, I could not wait to judge. Today, I am well out of my teens, and if the realization of one's ignorance is the starting point of one's [illegible], then I believe that I am [illegible] a little [illegible].

Kim received his B.A. degree from Washington University in [illegible]. He worked during the [illegible] before going to McGill University to take up postgraduate work. In 1946 he received his Master's degree in Accountancy. [illegible] during the day as an accountant, he attended McGill Extension School by night to work towards his C. A.

The other evening, I was with Kim together with two others. He had just received official notice that he has passed his C.A. degree.

We were in a small cafe, the newspaper announcing the exam results spread before us. We ordered four drinks—cokes for us, milk for Kim—and toasted his future success. I looked across at Kim, this diminutive dynamo of distinction, with added admiration. He caught my gaze and asked, "What's the matter?" I kept silently gazing at him until we both broke out laughing. No, nothing was the matter, nothing at all.

Japan's Top Physicist To Lecture At Iowa State

AMES, Ia. — One of Japan's top nuclear scientists is on the Iowa State College campus to do research with the school's new 70,000,000-volt synchotron, an atom smasher.

The physicist, Dr. Ryokichi Sagane, will also lecture at the college for six months. Dr. Sagane was the scientist to whom a message was sent by American physicists at the time the atom bomb was dropped on Nagasaki, pleading with him to urge an end of war.

The note was given to him after the Japanese surrender as he was inspecting damage done by the bomb.
